对于已建厂区，最大限度减少杀虫剂和化肥使用，保留并使用本地植物、保留健康土壤和合适植被。开展生态污染风险点位周边的土壤、地下水监测，确保公司生产运营未对周边土壤、水资源产生交互影响；

对于新建厂区，把生物多样性作为强制性指标纳入前期评估标准，确保最终选址可保护水生生态系统、保护受威胁和濒危物种栖息地，同时尽可能保留绿色空间。通过选址的优化布局及引入更先进的环保治理技术来减少公司的生产运营对生物多样性的负面影响，重点是改善土地利用，减少水资源的浪费以及水污染、大气污染和固体废弃物的产生；

1. Corporate Biodiversity Management

Identify, measure and assess the impacts and dependencies of production activities at all Company operating sites on the biodiversity of the site location and surrounding areas;

For established plants, minimize the use of pesticides and fertilizers, retain and use native plants, retain healthy soil and suitable vegetation. Carry out soil and groundwater monitoring around ecological pollution risk sites to ensure that the Company's production and operations have not interactively affected neighboring soil and water resources;

For new plants, biodiversity is included as a mandatory indicator in the pre-assessment criteria to ensure that the final site can protect aquatic ecosystems and protect the habitats of threatened and endangered species, while preserving as much green space as possible. Reduce the negative impacts of the Company's production operations on biodiversity through the optimal layout of sites and the introduction of more advanced environmental management technologies, with a focus on improving land use and reducing the waste of water resources as well as the generation of water pollution, air pollution and solid waste;

Strictly avoid or reduce deforestation associated with production activities to ensure that the surrounding ecosystems and their ecological attributes are not negatively impacted.
